This Act may be cited as the "Department of Defense Appropriations Act, 2010".

Mr. INOUE. Mr. President, today the Senate will begin consideration of the bill making appropriations for the Department of Defense for fiscal year 2010. On behalf of the committee, Vice Chairman COCHRAN and I are recommending funding which totals $636.3 billion for the discretionary programs under the Defense Subcommittee's jurisdiction.

This amount is $3.9 billion below the amount requested but is the same as the subcommittee's allocation.

Of this amount $128.2 billion is funding to sustain our overseas contingency operations, primarily in Iraq and Afghanistan.

I applaud Secretary Gates and the administration for putting forward a budget request which covers the operations both for the normal cost of running our national security programs and for the ongoing wartime needs.

The proposed funding in this measure protects the priorities of our military and civilian leaders; it supports our men and women in uniform, and provides the funding needed for critical acquisition programs.

There has been much discussion this year about proposals by the administration to cut funding for "unnecessary" weapons programs. Vice Chairman COCHRAN and I have reviewed each of the proposals by the administration.
